DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Defendants.

1 Plaintiff (‘‘Plaintiff’’) makes the , individually and on 2 behalf of all others similarly situated, by and through his counsel upon information and belief 3 except as to those allegations concerning Plaintiff, which are alleged upon personal knowledge.
4 Plaintiff’s information and beliefs are based upon, inter alia, counsel’s investigation, which 5 included, among other things, review and analysis of regulatory filings made by Navan, Inc.
6 (‘‘Navan’’ or the ‘‘Company’’) with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (‘‘SEC’’), analyst
7 and media reports, conference call transcripts, Company press releases, and other publicly 8 available information. Plaintiff believes that additional evidentiary support will exist for the 9 allegations set forth herein after a reasonable opportunity for discovery.

10 NATURE AND SUMMARY OF THE ACTION

11 1. Plaintiff brings this federal class action under §§11, 12, and 15 of the Securities Act 12 of 1933 (‘‘Securities Act’’) against (i) Navan, (ii) certain of the Company’s senior executives and 13 directors who signed the Registration Statement, effective October 31, 2025, issued in connection 14 with the Company’s initial public offering (the ‘‘IPO’’ or the ‘‘Offering’’), and the underwriters of 15 the Offering. Plaintiff alleges that the Registration Statement and Prospectus (filed with the SEC 16 on September 19, 2025, and October 30, 2025, respectively) including all amendments thereto
17 (collectively, the ‘‘Offering Documents’’),¹ contained materially incorrect or misleading statements 18 and/or omitted material information that was required by law to be disclosed. Defendants are each 19 strictly liable for such misstatements and omissions therefrom (subject only to their ability to 20 establish a ‘‘due diligence’’ affirmative defense).

21 2. Navan, which is headquartered in Palo Alto, California, provides booking and 22 expense reporting software for business travelers. On or about October 31, 2025, Navan conducted 23 its IPO, offering 36,924,406 million shares of its common stock to the investing public at a price 24 of $25 per share (the ‘‘Offering Price’’). Defendants anticipated generating gross proceeds of over 25 $920 million from the IPO.

26

30, 2025).

1 17. Defendant Anne Giviskos (“Giviskos”) is, and was at all relevant times, the Chief

26 Company. Defendant Zeev reviewed, approved, and participated in making statements in the 28

1 26. In addition, although not an element of Plaintiff’s (or the Class’s) claims (and is 2 instead an issue on which each Individual Defendant bears the burden of proof to the extent it
3 seeks to assert it as an affirmative defense), no Individual Defendant conducted an adequate due 4 diligence investigation in connection with the matters alleged herein and will accordingly be 5 unable to establish a statutory “due diligence” affirmative defense under the Securities Act.

19 Navan common stock to investors in the IPO. Defendant Rosenblatt conducts business in this 20 District.

21 42. The Defendants listed above are collectively referred to herein as the “Underwriter 22 Defendants.” Pursuant to the Securities Act, each Underwriter Defendant is liable for the 23 materially inaccurate, misleading, and incomplete statements in the Offering Documents. In 24 addition, although not an element of Plaintiff’s (or the Class’s) claims (and is instead an issue on 25 which each Underwriter Defendant bears the burden of proof to the extent it seeks to assert it as 26 an affirmative defense), no Underwriter Defendant conducted an adequate due diligence 27 investigation in connection with the matters alleged herein and will accordingly be unable to 28 establish a statutory “due diligence” affirmative defense under the Securities Act.

1 43. Each Underwriter Defendant named herein is an investment banking firm whose 2 activities include, inter alia, the underwriting of public offerings of securities. As the underwriters 3 of the IPO, the Underwriter Defendants earned $36.7 million in underwriting discounts and 4 commissions.

5 44. As underwriters, the Underwriter Defendants met with potential investors in the 6 IPO and presented highly favorable, but materially misleading, information about the Company, 7 its business, products, plans, and financial prospects, and omitted to disclose material information 8 required to be disclosed under the federal securities laws and applicable regulations promulgated 9 thereunder.

10 45. Representatives of the Underwriter Defendants assisted Navan and the Individual 11 Defendants in planning the IPO and purported to conduct an adequate and reasonable investigation 12 into the business, operations, products, and plans of the Company, an undertaking known as a “due 13 diligence” investigation. During their “due diligence,” the Underwriter Defendants had continual 14 access to confidential corporate information concerning the Company’s business, operations, 15 financial condition, products, performance, and prospects.

16 46. In addition to having access to internal corporate documents, the Underwriter 17 Defendants and/or their agents, including their counsel, had access to Navan’s management and 18 directors to determine: (i) the strategy to best accomplish the IPO; (ii) the terms of the IPO, 19 including the price at which Navan’s common stock would be sold; (iii) the language to be used 20 in the Offering Documents; (iv) what disclosures about Navan would be made in the Offering 21 Documents; and (v) what responses would be made to the SEC in connection with its review of 22 the Offering Documents. As a result of those constant contacts and communications between the 23 Underwriter Defendants’ representatives and Navan’s management and directors, the Underwriter 24 Defendants were aware of, or at a minimum should have known of, Navan’s undisclosed issues, 25 and of the Offering Document’s materially misleading and incomplete statements and omissions 26 as alleged herein.

27 47. The Underwriter Defendants caused the Registration Statement to be filed with the 28 SEC and declared effective in connection with the IPO so that they, and the Individual Defendants,

1 could offer to sell (and did in fact sell) the Navan shares registered thereby to members of the Class
2 pursuant to the Offering Documents.

3 SUBSTANTIVE ALLEGATIONS

4 48. On June 20, 2025, Navan filed with the SEC a draft registration statement on Form
5 S-1, which would be used for the IPO following a series of amendments. On October 30, 2025, 6 Navan filed its Prospectus with the SEC, which registered 36,924,406 Navan shares for public
7 sale. The SEC declared the Registration Statement effective on October 31, 2025. Defendants 8 priced the IPO at $25 per share.

9 49. The Offering Documents were negligently prepared and, as a result, contained 10 untrue statements of material facts or omitted to state other facts necessary to make the statements 11 made not misleading, and were not prepared in accordance with the rules and regulations 12 governing their preparation.

13 50. According to the Offering Documents, Navan's business had "experienced rapid 14 growth," and the Company's solutions catered to "customers of all sizes across any industry 15 vertical." Consequently, the Company's revenue "grew 33% year-over-year from $402 million in 16 fiscal 2024 to $537 million in fiscal 2025, and grew 30% period-over-period from $254 million 17 for the six months ended July 31, 2024 to $329 million for the six months ended July 31, 2025." 18 Navan's GBV (calculated as "the total amount paid for valid bookings on our platform, measured 19 on a booked basis and inclusive of total price, taxes, and fees, and adjusted for cancellations and 20 refunds") grew "32% year-over-year from $5.0 billion in fiscal 2024 to $6.6 billion in fiscal 2025, 21 and grew 34% period-over-period from $3.1 billion for the six months ended July 31, 2024 to $4.1 22 billion for the six months ended July 31, 2025." Additionally, Navan's "usage yield" (which 23 "equals usage-based revenue divided by GBV for such period and represents [Navan's] ability to 24 convert GBV into usage-based revenue") "was approximately 7% in each of fiscal 2025 and fiscal 25 2024 and for the six months ended July 31, 2025, and 2024."

26 51. The Offering Documents, however, were false and misleading and omitted to state 27 that the Company would increase its sales and marketing expenses by 39% just months after the 28 IPO to sustain its revenue, GBV, and usage yield growth.

1 65. Plaintiff brings this action as a class action, pursuant to Rule 23(a) and 23(b)(3) of 2 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of a class consisting of all persons and entities that 3 purchased, or otherwise acquired, Navan common stock issued pursuant or traceable to the 4 Company's IPO.

5 66. Excluded from the Class are: (i) Defendants; (ii) present or former executive 6 officers of Navan, members of the Navan's Board, and members of their immediate families (as 7 defined in 17 C.F.R. §229.404, Instructions (1)(a)(iii) and (1)(b)(ii)); (iii) any of the foregoing 8 persons' legal representatives, heirs, successors, or assigns; and (iv) any entities in which 9 Defendants have or had a controlling interest, or any affiliate of Navan.

10 67. The members of the Class are so numerous that joinder of all members is 11 impracticable. The Company's common stock was actively traded on the Nasdaq, a national 12 securities exchange. While the exact number of Class members is unknown to Plaintiff at this time 13 and can only be ascertained through appropriate discovery, Plaintiff believes that there are 14 hundreds or thousands of members in the Class. Record owners and other members of the Class 15 may be identified from records maintained by Navan or its transfer agent and may be notified of 16 the pendency of this action by mail, using a form of notice similar to that customarily used in 17 securities class actions.

18 68. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of Class members, who were all similarly 19 affected by Defendants' wrongful conduct in violation of the federal securities laws. Further, 20 Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of Class members and has retained counsel 21 competent and experienced in class and securities litigation.

22 69. Common questions of law and fact exist as to all members of the Class and 23 predominate over any questions solely affecting individual members of the Class. Among the 24 questions of law and fact common to the members of the Class are:

70. A class action is superior to all other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy since joinder of all members is impracticable. Further, as the damages suffered by individual Class members may be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual litigation make it impossible for Class members to individually redress the wrongs done to them. There will be no difficulty in the management of this action as a class action.

CLAIM ONE

For Violations of §11 of the Securities Act (Against All Defendants)

71. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation contained above as if fully set forth herein.

72. This claim is brought pursuant to §11 of the Securities Act, 15 U.S.C. §77k, on behalf of the Class, against all Defendants. This is a non-fraud cause of action. Plaintiff does not assert that any Defendant committed intentional or reckless misconduct or that Defendants acted with scienter or fraudulent intent.

73. The Offering Documents were materially misleading and incomplete, and omitted facts necessary to make the statements made therein not misleading and omitted to state material facts required to be stated therein.

74. The Company is the registrant of the Navan common stock purchased by Plaintiff and the proposed Class. As such, the Company is strictly liable for the materially misleading statements contained in the Offering Documents and the failure of the Offering Documents to be complete and accurate. By virtue of the Offering Documents containing material misrepresentations and omissions of material fact necessary to make the statements therein not false and misleading, Navan is liable under §11 of the Securities Act to Plaintiff and the Class.

1 75. The Individual Defendants each signed the Offering Documents and caused their 2 issuance. As such, each is strictly liable for the materially inaccurate statements contained in the 3 Offering Documents and the failure of the Offering Documents to be complete and accurate, unless 4 he or she is able to carry his or her burden of establishing an affirmative “due diligence” defense.
5 The Individual Defendants each had a duty to make a reasonable and diligent investigation of the 6 truthfulness and accuracy of the statements contained in the Offering Documents and ensure that 7 they were true and accurate, there were no omissions of material facts that would make the 8 Offering Documents misleading, and the documents contained all facts required to be stated 9 therein. In the exercise of reasonable care, the Individual Defendants should have known of the 10 materially misleading statements and omissions contained in the Offering Documents and also 11 should have known of the omissions of material fact necessary to make the statements made therein 12 not misleading. Accordingly, the Individual Defendants are liable to Plaintiff and the Class.

13 76. The Underwriter Defendants each served as underwriters in connection with the 14 IPO. As such, each is strictly liable for the materially misleading and incomplete statements 15 contained in the Offering Documents and the failure of the Offering Documents to be complete 16 and accurate, unless it is able to carry its burden of establishing an affirmative “due diligence” 17 defense. The Underwriter Defendants each had a duty to make a reasonable and diligent 18 investigation of the truthfulness and accuracy of the statements contained in the Offering 19 Documents. They had a duty to ensure that such statements were true and accurate, that there were 20 no omissions of material facts that would make the Offering Documents misleading, and that the 21 documents contained all facts required to be stated therein. In the exercise of reasonable care, the 22 Underwriter Defendants should have known of the materially misleading statements and omissions 23 contained in the Offering Documents and also should have known of the omissions of material 24 facts necessary to make the statements made therein not misleading. Accordingly, each of the 25 Underwriter Defendants is liable to Plaintiff and the Class.

26 77. Defendants acted negligently in preparing the Offering Documents. None of the 27 Defendants named in this Claim made a reasonable investigation or possess reasonable grounds 28 for the belief that the statements contained in the Offering Documents were without omission of 1 any material facts and were not materially misleading. In alleging the foregoing, Plaintiff 2 specifically disclaims any allegation of fraud.

3 78. By reasons of the conduct herein alleged, each Defendant named in this claim 4 violated §11 of the Securities Act.

5 79. None of the untrue statements or omissions of material fact in the Offering 6 Documents alleged herein was a forward-looking statement. Rather, each such statement 7 concerned existing facts. Moreover, the Offering Documents did not properly identify any of the 8 materially misleading statements as forward-looking statements and did not disclose information 9 that undermined the putative validity of these statements.

10 80. Plaintiff acquired the Company's securities pursuant or traceable to the Offering 11 Documents and without knowledge of the materially misleading statements and/or omissions 12 alleged herein. Plaintiff sustained damages, and the price of the Company's shares declined 13 substantially due to materially misleading and incomplete Offering Documents.

14 81. This Claim is brought within one year after the discovery of the untrue statements 15 and omissions and within three years of the date of the Offering.

16 82. By virtue of the foregoing, Plaintiff and the other members of the Class are entitled 17 to damages under §11, as measured by the provisions of §11(e), from the Defendants and each of 18 them, jointly and severally.

19 CLAIM TWO

20 For Violations of §12(a) of the Securities Act
21 (Against All Defendants)

22 83. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation contained above, as if fully 23 set forth herein.

24 84. Each Defendant promoted, solicited, and sold Navan common stock pursuant to the 25 Offering Documents.

26 85. The Prospectus for the IPO contained materially misleading statements of fact, and 27 concealed and failed to disclose material facts, as detailed above. Defendants owed all members 28 of the Class who purchased Navan shares pursuant or traceable to the Prospectus the duty to make

1 a reasonable and diligent investigation of the statements contained in the Prospectus, to ensure that
